

WE RAISED OUR SON WITH TOUGH LOVE. THE ARMY IS MAKING SURE HE DOESN'T GET TOO HOMESICK.

Robert and Ana Pierce, parents of Pvt. Robert Pierce, Aviation Operations Specialist (15P)

Sooner or later, every kid has to grow up and take the next step in life. So when Robert told us he was joining the Army, we felt good about his decision. Now he's got a whole new voice giving him the talk, and making sure he does the walk. We can already tell he's more motivated, wants to succeed for himself, and even has his sights set on college. So, even though he's not getting his mother's cooking, we know he's in good hands. And knowing our boy, we're confident he'll be able to handle whatever is put in front of him – and then some.
